SRF Education & Awareness Program: Many patients hear the word "scleroderma" for the first time when they are diagnosed. We strive to raise awareness and provide educational resources because lack of awareness about scleroderma often causes delays in treatment or misdiagnosis. As an innovator in scleroderma research, the SRF is uniquely qualified to provide those living with this disease, the medical community, and the general public with the most up-to-date, trusted and relevant news and information about complications, treatments, and related research through our website, webinars, annual patient forum, and monthly eNewsletter. And we deliver stories of impact that connect and inspire patients, as well as address issues related to diversity, equity, and inclusion that patients may encounter as they navigate diagnosis, treatment, and living with the disease.
